East Tennessee Foundation	Awards "Youth Endowment" grants to address prevention and/or intervention to pilot programs or expansion of existing programs for at-risk children and youth. Programs must prevent/reduce one or more issues: anti-social behavior, school drop-out, alcohol/drug addiction, sexual and emotional abuse, teen pregnancy and sexually transmitted diseases (STDs), eating disorders, and barriers to gainful employment.	http://easttennesseefoundation.org/receive/grants.aspx	<ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>• Awarded 105 new educational scholarships in 2017 totaling $742,000</li><li>• Awarded over $38 million in 2017 to hundreds of nonprofit organizations in East Tennessee and across the country</li></ul>	All applications must be completed and submitted via the Foundation’s online grants management system. An organization may only submit one application per grant cycle for each grants program (e.g. Mount Rest Fund), but an organization may submit an application for every grants program for which it is eligible. Because the application requirements vary for each grants program, please visit each grants program's web page for information that is specific to that grants program. Please visit website for more information.
First Tennessee Foundation	Arts and culture, education, financial literacy, health services, and environment.	http://www.firsttennesseefoundation.com/Health-Services	Since its inception in 1993, the foundation has donated more than $80 million to meet community needs.	Our application process opens on October 1 – December 1 to be awarded the following year. Final decisions are communicated by the end of March for the year we grant the request. Your grant proposal will be submitted through the designated link for your region and all necessary documents can be uploaded with your application. The deadline to submit a grant request for 2019 is December 1, 2018.
The Frist Foundation	The basic mission is to invest in nonprofit organizations in Metropolitan Nashville in ways that strengthen their ability to provide services. As a private foundation, much of the Foundation's work involves grant making. However, the Foundation also takes an active role in initiating special programs to enhance the community in a variety of other ways.	www.fristfoundation.org	In the past five years, the Frist Foundation has given more than $50 million in grants to the nonprofit community.	Grants are made throughout the year and can run from $1,000 to $250,000, though a more typical range is $3,000 to $20,000. While there are no deadlines for requests, larger grants are typically approved at board meetings taking place in January, April, July and October. Depending on the timing of the submission, it could take as long as three months for grant approval. Grants of less than $25,000 are usually decided within a month of receipt, often much more quickly. Visit the website for more information.
